Job Description

CUCS operates two Single Stops on Riker's Island. Our goal is to reduce recidivism rates at Riker's Island by assisting low income New Yorkers in taking initial steps towards self sufficiency. We address basic concerns onsite that may otherwise complicate successful re-entry into the community when released: acquiring benefits, addressing outstanding civil legal concerns and inaccurate documentation regarding criminal histories. We are a diverse team who are hard working, client centered and willing to do whatever it takes to get the job done.

The Benefits Advisor will assist sentenced inmates at Rikers Island in meeting their most basic needs of self-sufficiency, screen for interest and eligibility for public benefits, including paper and electronic application completion with some post-release planning ensuring successful re-entry into the community. Additional responsibilities include screening for other services provided by the program.

Experience/Requirements

HS diploma and at least 2 years of related experience required, BA preferred. Strong organizational skills, ability to market program and work collaboratively with other service providers both on and off island. Social service experience required. Experience in public benefits acquisition and/or re-entry, as well as bilingual Spanish-speaker a plus. Must be highly professional, flexible, focused, organized and able to work with a diverse population of clients, and possess a proven ability to maintain professional boundaries.

PLEASE NOTE - Masters' level applicants will NOT be considered. This is not a supervisory position. Candidates must be able to pass New York City Department of Corrections clearance process for employment.

CUCS is committed to workforce diversity. EEO

We encourage all eligible employees to apply. Qualified candidates will be contacted regarding scheduling an interview.

Job Description

The Public Health Diversion Center provides 24/7 short stay, engagement, stabilization and treatment services for adults with mental health and/or substance use issues referred directly by NYPD as an alternative to the traditional police responses of arrest, summons, or transport to an emergency room. Guests are referred to the Diversion Center when their infractions are non-violent and/or low-level offenses such as loitering, trespass, public inebriation, and disorderly conduct. The goal of the Diversion Center is to help guests begin to identify and modify the behaviors that result in repeated police contact. Job Description

The Assistant Program Director (APD) is responsible for supporting the Program Director in the overall management of the program, ensuring that clients receive services that meet regulatory and agency standards and records are kept in compliance with those standards. The APD oversees on-site primary medical and psychiatric services and ensures the effective utilization of these services, as well as oversees on-site tenant services programming. The APD provides direct supervision as assigned and is central in fostering the mission and goals of the agency. Along with the Program Director, the APD is responsible for providing leadership and guiding all staff in fostering the mission and goals of the agency by creating a program culture that is client-centered, outcome-oriented and dedicated to continuous quality improvement.

The position requires a thorough understanding of relevant service delivery concepts and structures, including strong knowledge and experience with mental health systems, and the ability to negotiate the full range of services for recipients. It also requires strong supervisory and administrative skills and the ability to interface effectively and efficiently with colleagues to ensure quality services and program operations.

The Center for Urban Community Services, a national leader in the development of effective housing and service initiatives for homeless people, invites applications for an ASSISTANT PROGRAM DIRECTOR position at the Lee. The Lee, located on the Lower East Side of Manhattan, is a 262 unit supportive housing residence for low income tenants, many of whom have histories of mental illness, homelessness, substance abuse, HIV/AIDS, and/or other chronic medical conditions. Managed by Breaking Ground, The Lee building hosts two social service programs, CUCS and The Door.
